ANNOUNCEMENTS

AT THE AUDITORIUM.

Big Musical Comedy Company Com-ing Next Week-Hazel Dawn in The Feud Girl Monday and Tuesday.

The Carmelo Musical Comedy company will appear at the Auditorium during the coming week, opening on Monday with The Beauty Bug. The Beauty Bug is one of those flashy com-binations that present an abundance of happy comedy and an attractive ensemble of pretty girls in a well arranged programme of singing and dancing numbers. Odd novelties and bright electrical effects are also features of the production. One of the real attractions is the "Rosebud chorus" a group of very pretty and atus," a group of very pretty and atard of Bom Bom.

On the picture programme for Mon-day and Tuesday Daniel Frohman will present Hazel Dawn as The Feud Girl, a stirring drama of condict and love produced by the Famous Players company. Frank Daniels will also ap-pear on the picture programme in an-other of the Mr. Jack series of V. L. S. E. comidies. Owing to the added cost of this exceptional bill there will be a slight change in the seating orrangement, evenings only, when the whole lower floor will be 20c and the balcony 10c. Matiness will be 10c all over the house as usual.

DAVIS THEATRE TODAY Four Shows at 1.15, 3.15, 6.45 and 8.45

-Three Big Keith Acts. Triangle Features and Charlie Chaplin in The

There will be four shows at this theatre today and the bill of vaudeville and pictures is the best yet. The feature attraction is Toots Paka and her Hawaiian singers, musicians and dancers. This is without a doubt the most pleasing and entertaining offer-ing ever heard here. There is a charm to their native songs and musical selections that always gets the crowd. This act goes direct from the Davis to Keith's theatre, Providence, where the head the big bill there. Another good act is Gertie Falls, a winsome fniss, who does some remarkable feats in the air, the third act, Billy Seaton and company in songs and plano se-

There is also an unusually strong bill of photopiays. The Triangle feature is called The Devil's Needle, a five-part Fine Arts productoon, starring Tully Marshall. This picture deals with one of the greatest evils of the decade. The famous Pathe News will also be shown. To complete the show Charlie Chaplin, the highest salaried comedian in the world, is seen in his latest comedy, The Count. This is the funniest picture this notably funny fellow has ever made and no one should miss seeing it. The new Davis concert or-There is also an unusually strong

Coming to the Davis.

The Blue Envelope, a farce of fast action and replete with novel, stirring and tremendously humorous situations, will be the attraction at the Davis theatre for an engagement of one night, Tuesday, Oct. 5d, with Edward Garvie and Carrie Reynolds heading the excellent cast. The play divided last season at the Cort theatre, New

The Princess Pat, and the original Cort theatre production will be seen here intact. Other well known and very popular farceurs who comprise the company are Ralph Nairn, Beth Frank-lyn, John L. Kearney, Lizzle Wilson, Victor Browne, Caroline Leonard, John P. MacSweeney, Franklin George, Belle Theodore and Ford Frankline. Regardless of the fact that but this one com-pany is touring in the play, the prices will not exceed $1,50 for the best seats. Seats on sale Friday next. Mail or-ders should be sent now.

The first time Donald Walter, age 9, of Wolfeboro, N. H., fired a gun he filled a 16 pound hedgehog.

BREED THEATRE Exceptional Bill of Features for Monday and Tuesday.

The Quitter, a five-part Metro won-Breed theatre today. In this production Mr. Barrymore has the picturesque and interesting role of Happy Jack Lewis, a miner of Paradise Gulch. It is easily the best role Mr. Barrymore has ever essayed on the speaking stage or on the screen. He is surrounded by a strong cast including Marguerite Skirvin, a new comer to the Metro program, and one of the most charming and gifted young leading women in the silent drama. Others in the cast include Edward Brennan, Paul Everton and Charles Prince well known members of many Broadway stage successes.

known members of many Broadway stage successes.

The Metro Travelogue and a roaring comedy entitled The Modern Hercuies completes the bill for today.

On Monday and Tuesday the Breed will present the famous stars Francis X. Bushman and Beverly Bayne in the masterly five-part photo-drama, Man and His Soul, in which allegory, romance and vital, human story are deftly mingled. It is a powerful story tractive young women who sing well and dance with plenty of ginger, and add much to the entertaining value of the performance. Among the principals are Fred Carmelo and Lillian Washburn, who lead in the comedy characters, and the laugh-provoking situations are both emphatic and frequent. A group of singing artists is headed by Miss Ramee Rivas, prima donna, and includes James Glasgow. Jack Sexton, Henry Carr, Victor Bayard. Marie Harrington and Peggy Dunn. The dancing features are led by June Fritchi, promiere danseusse. Altogether The Beauty Bug combines a variety of entertainment which cannot fail to please. On Thursday this will be followed by an equally entertaining musical show called The Wizard of Bom Bom.

On the picture programme for Monits proper conclusion.

> Big Day at the First Baptist Church. In accordance with the usual fall custom of the First Baptist church and Sunday school, Sunday, Sept. 24th, the members of the church, the Sunday school and their friends will have their annual Rally day services. A very interesting programme has been arranged for all the services.

> The members of the Sunday school are planning to attend the morning service as a school, when special music and a Rally day sermon by the pastor will be an interesting feature. Organ-Robert Otis, cornetist, and Frank Benson, violinist, and the choir will ren-der the anthems Blow Ye the Trumpet, Blow, with cornet obligato, and March of the Christian Soldiers. For the offertory Mr. Benson will render a violin solo, To a Wild Rose. The junior department of the Sunday school will also occupy a place in the morning

At the Sunday school hour directly ollowing the morning service Mayor Allyn L. Brown will address the scho and the graduation exercises of the beginners', primary and junior depart-ments will be held. These services will

WHAT MIGHT HAVE BEEN.

"The hand that rocks the cradle," but there is no such hand;
It is bad to rock the baby, they would have us understand.
So the cradle's but a relic of the former foolish days.
When they jounced them, and they bounced them, those poor dwarfs of long ago,
The Washingtons, and Jeffersons, and Adamses, you know.

They warn us that the baby will possess a muddled brain

If we dandle him or rock him; we must carefully refrain;

He must lie in one position, never swung.

Or his chance to grow to greatness will be blasted while he's young.

Ah, to think how they were ruined by their mothers long ago.
The Franklins, and the Putnams, and the Hamiltons, you know.
We must feed the baby only by the schedule that is made
And the food that he is given must be measured out and weighed.

We are given a great mission, we are We are given a great mission, we are here, today, on earth
To bring forth a race of giants and to guard them from their birth.
To insist upon their freedom from the rocking that was bad
For our parents and their parents, scrambling all the brains they had.

Ah! had they been fed by schedule would they have been stunted The Websters, and the Lincolns, and the Grants and Lees, you know
